Connecting with God . . . Connecting with Others . . . Connecting with what God is doing in the world.

Pastor's Lines...

My heart still aches as I reflect on the killing of 9 of my brothers and sisters in the Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, South Carolina. Even though their names were unknown to me before the news spoke of them, they are/were related to me by the promise of God and the death and resurrection of Jesus. St. Paul says in his 1st letter to the Corinthians, "If one member suffers, all suffer together..." (1st Corinthians 12:26) There is much suffering within the Body of Christ from the Middle East to our own land. Let us pray that God will make us more and more aware of the hurting, more and more aware of the suffering. I pray that my heart will be broken by the things which break Jesus' heart. I pray that God will then remake my heart, filling it with righteousness and passion for all. Then may God sends me, send us to new places, into new relationships where my/our gifts will be used to His glory and for the building up of His Body. May we speak as opposed to remaining silent. May we act instead of sitting still. But let us listen to one another first. Let our hearts be broken, Lord, that we may be new and of use to your mission. Amen.

A thank you to the Living Lord Preschool for the supportive gift of $8000 to our building mortgage fund. Over the past 17 years the preschool has touched the lives of over 1000 children and their families. The preschool has also been a connection with the Western St. Charles County area as the staff has served people from all backgrounds and circumstances. Additionally, the regular support of the mortgage fund has made other ministries possible. So we say thanks be to God for Living Lord Preschool. Registration continues for the fall. If you have a neighbor or friend who is looking for a top-flight preschool experience for their child, please make a reference.

God "Who began a good work in you will bring it to completion until the day of Jesus Christ." (Philippians 1) I believe that God is working in and through us at Living Lord. In our worship, through our outreach in the county and city, by our support of ministries throughout the world by ELCA missionaries and connections, when we meet in small groups and studies, as we serve the hurting and those who are struggling. We are instruments being amplified by God to make the music of the Gospel's good news extend to our world. Thanks be to God.

- Pastor Roy Christell

PASTOR'S LINES – JULY 2015

For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:6

Summer Love and Light

Long days, short nights – rare but scorching sun, way too much rain. In June we were reminded that daylight and sunshine can be two very different things!

All of the Church Seasons in 2015 so far (Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and now the days after Pentecost) have involved the theme of light—living in the light of Christ, as we are reading about in the letter of 2 Corinthians. Signs of God's love are shining out among us. I want to share some words from the Christian author Thomas Merton (1915-1968) who was remembered at an international conference in Louisville last month.

During the long summer days, a lot of work and/or play can get done. But, . . . to allow oneself to be carried away by a multitude of conflicting concerns, to surrender to too many demands, to commit oneself to too many projects, to want to help everyone in everything, is to succumb to violence. The frenzy or our activism neutralizes our work for peace. It destroys our own inner capacity for peace. It destroys the fruitfulness of our own work... (Remember that it is God who actually is getting the real work done—see the parables of Mark 4.)

Creation, redemption, and inspiration are all works of our loving God. As we seek to reflect the light and love of God, our relationships are crucial: The beginning of love is to let those we love be perfectly themselves, and not to twist them to fit our own image. Otherwise we love only the reflection of ourselves we find in them.

And finally an affirmation of God's light shining through all people: In Louisville, at the corner of Fourth and Walnut, in the center of the shopping district, I was suddenly overwhelmed with the realization that I loved all those people, that they were mine and I theirs, that we could not be alien to one another even though we were total strangers. It was like waking from a dream of separateness, of spurious self-isolation in a special world, the world of renunciation and supposed holiness. The whole illusion of a separate holy existence is a dream... There is no way of telling people that they are all walking around shining like the sun.... I suddenly saw the secret beauty of their hearts, the depths of their hearts where neither sin nor desire nor self-knowledge can reach, the core of their reality, the person that each one is in God's eyes. If only they could all see themselves as they really are. If only we could see each other that way all of the time.

Peace and joy,

Pastor Jim

[In God's mercy,] as long as the earth endures, seed • me and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease.

Living Lord Preschool

Living Lord Preschool is currently taking registrations for the 2015-2016 school year. Please contact Michelle Hiatt, Director, through the church office at 327-7729 for additional information about program offerings for children ages 3 - 5.

Even though the Preschool will be closed during the months of June, July and August, any preschool inquiries will be forwarded to Michelle Hiatt.

Continue to follow the preschool on Facebook and check out its website at <http://livinglordpreschool.weebly.com>.

Thank You!

We would like to thank Living Lord for their loving recognition of this year's high school graduates. The customized keepsake quilt is priceless. Thank you so much for the time and effort put into this wonderful gift.

We would also like to thank Living Lord Preschool for their gifts. The first gift was the wonderful introduction to education and learning the preschool gave our daughter 15 years ago. We couldn't have asked for a more caring and skilled staff for this important first step in our daughter's education. The second gift was the $250 stipend. This was such a nice recognition for the students' continued participation in Living Lord.

We are overwhelmed with appreciation and gratitude. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

The family of Claire Grim

Thoughts from Youth Ministry

It is Friday night of VBS week (ok, technically it is Saturday morning since it is 1:20am) and I am surrounded by a small army of raucous youth who do not seem to realize Chad is exhausted. Soon I will usher them to bed and eventually find myself a semi-comfortable place on the floor to grab 4 or so hours of sleep. But you know what? I love VBS week.

If you are not aware, each week of VBS we have a huge group of our youth serve as helpers during VBS. They serve as group leaders, music instructors, craft helpers and more. They do it with joy in their hearts and huge smiles across their faces. They lift up and support an army of little kids who are here to learn a little bit about the God we love and serve. It is awesome.

And then each day I take a group of them out for activities afterward. Some are fun like a day of games or a visit to SkyZone. Thursday we took a van load of youth to do a service project in the rain (EVERYONE was pretty much soaked but no one complained). And today, we gathered for food, games and God at our end-of-the-week lock in. And I am beat. Caffeine is no longer effective. I am not sure I can take another shriek, or scream or ball zinging past my head.

But I love VBS week and all its craziness. And here is why:

* I saw a young women and men telling the story of God's love to the next generation of disciples.

* From setup up to tear down, I did not hear a complaint about having to work. Each time they were asked to do something, they did it with a smile on their face.

* I witnessed friendships begin and grow within our little youth community. I also saw friendships bloom across decades which is even cooler.

* On Friday, we held our own prayer vigil. For an hour, our youth prayed for others whom they did not know. They prayed and sang and explored what it means to part of the Church.

* Numerous times, I heard of children and youth bringing friends from outside our church to a place they could hear the Gospel proclaimed.

But my favorite moment of the week occurred following our prayer vigil. A small group of youth stayed in the darkened sanctuary and talked with me.

We talked for almost forty-five minutes. In those quiet conversation, a seventh grade girl struggled with understanding how someone could ever kill people within a church. The concept of such hate was so foreign she was brought to the edge of tears trying to grasp its reality. Some may see her struggle as naïve. Others would brush it off because she must be a sheltered child. But as I sat there, I realized I want the world to be like she sees it. I want such hatred and hurt to be so foreign it hurts. I want to be moved to prayer and action to help all in need and not be so jaded I drop into 'it is what it is' mode. I want to love my neighbor as myself.

And not just my church-neighbors, or my daughter's softball team-neighbors, or my family -neighbors. ALL.

And this is why I love VBS Week. Because each time I spend hours and hours with these 'kids', they open my eyes and heart to the Gospel more and more.

I guess once again Jesus had it right all along.

And said, Truly I say to you, Unless you turn and become like little children, you shall by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens. Matthew 18:3

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

August 15th will be Living Lord's build day. We have a sign up sheet in the gathering space for those who are 16 years and older and interested in helping out on this day.

Since we are sponsoring our own build day this year, we are collecting donations for Habitat for Humanity St Charles. You may write a check out to Living Lord and put in the memo (for Habitat).

At the June 13th and 14th services we heard staff members from Habitat St Charles and 2 of the new homeowners speak.

We signed our names and gave blessings on 2x6 boards that will be used in the home we will be helping build. The families' children were very excited about having the signatures as part of their new home.

Thank you all for your donations and support given on those days.

Here is part of an email I received from Habitat after visiting with us.

Thank you so much for arranging Habitat St. Charles to speak this weekend at your services. We all really enjoyed meeting you, your pastors and the congregation. It was really nice for you to sit with us as well.

Everyone was so nice and loving. We are blessed to have your congregation praying for Habitat, the families and the community we serve.

We look forward to having your group out on the job site in August.

Habitat for Humanity Chefs!

We are still in the need of some chefs to help up with preparing food, set up, serving, and clean up for lunch. It is a lot of fun and does not require a large time commitment. The most important part is to meet and listen to the story of the family who will be moving in to the new home.

We can listen and be supportive of their journey and also let them know how much they are cared for in God's family. If you are interested please contact Cindy Dougherty at 636-978-5211.

OASIS Food Pantry is collecting school supplies for children of clients. You can help by donating items by July 15th! Items can be placed in the designated OASIS wooden box in the gathering space. Needed items are: No. 2 pencils, black pens, red pens, yellow highlighters, narrow and wide lined notebook paper, markers, colored pencils, spiral notebooks, binders, backpacks, paper lunch bags, colored pocket folders, pencil boxes, erasers, pencil sharpeners, dry erase markers, Kleenex, book covers, calculators, rulers, crayons, and pencil bags. Thank you for your time and donations! Any questions...please contact Kim Burns at 636-544-0614.

Living Lord is currently looking for an additional, motivated individual to sit on and attend the monthly OASIS board meetings in St. Charles. This individual would be responsible for also reporting back to Living Lord the needs and opportunities available at OASIS. In addition, the person(s) volunteering for this position would need to be creative in soliciting monthly needed donations from the congregation via the monthly newsletter, announcements in church, food drives, etc. The disciples of Living Lord are so giving when it comes to helping OASIS and we could do so much more in terms of donations to help those in need in our community! If interested, please contact Kim Burns at 636-544-0614 or kb4kids@gmail.com.

Living Lord, in partnership with Baue Funeral Homes, will be presenting a workshop "Ten Mistakes to Avoid in Funeral Planning", on Thursday, August 20th, at 11 a.m. at Living Lord. This informative presentation will offer beneficial facts and tips when looking into funeral planning and will also provide time for a question and answer session. Lunch will be provided during this presentation, so please RSVP to the church office (636-327-7729) by Friday, August 14th, to reserve your spot! There will also be a sign up sheet in the gathering space.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

We like to think of summer as being a relaxing, enjoyable time but hurts, struggles, crises, and problems don't take a vacation. Many times our difficulties seem even worse during the summer because everyone else seems to be enjoying life while you are feeling down. If you are experiencing a difficult time-emotionally, spiritually, or relationally-you don't have to suffer alone. Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and provide one-to-one Christian care to help you through whatever it is that you are facing. Men are matched with male Stephen Ministers, and women are matched with female Stephen Ministers. It's free. It's confidential. And it will make a difference in your life!
